

Without this allowance, the race at the Union course, L. I., when Tally-ho, four years and six months, with 101 pounds up, beat Bostona and Free Trade in 7:33.4, 7:43.5, 7:52 and 8:10.4, is better. The race would be interesting to me, but probably not to my readers.

A description of this Red Eye-Nina race is given in the Dispatch of the 14th October, 1853. It was a battle royal from start to finish. A real risk of overstepping the mark must have been in the Red Eye's mind. He carried 124
